

Program Product Requirement

CS-13

Program Product Definition: A program product is a piece of software that is developed for the use of people other than the developer and that is expected to be used and maintained by other developers after the initial developer is no longer working on it.

Complete only the section that is most appropriate for your Program Product Requirement.

Name

PID #

E-mail Address

Date

---

COMP 523:

Completed Comp 523    Year and Semester: _____

Student Services Signature

Student Services Printed Name

Or equivalent software engineering course. Syllabus must be provided.

Equivalent COMP Instructor Signature

Instructor Printed Name

---

Industry Experience:

Student has spent at least 3 months in a software development job in an organization with an established development process and participated substantively in the development of a program product.

Company, Development Experience, and Duration

Student Name:

Adviser Name:     Adviser Signature:

---

Alternative:

Student has developed a program product, as defined above, and has met the expectations of the client, including product delivery and documentation for both users and other developers. Note: two signatures are required below.

Product and Deliverables:

Client:     Position:

Adviser or CS Faculty Member Signature
(required)

Printed Name:

Adviser or CS Faculty Member Signature
(required)

Printed Name: